

Full Time Café Assistant Manager Needed in Edinburgh

compensation: TBD

employment type: Full Time

start date: asap

We own a speciality tea company with multiple revenue streams. Our mission is to empower tea drinkers everywhere to master their mind through pausing for tea so they can live more now! Our team is small and closely knit, but we run a growing company, so every position is critical and everyone's input is valued. Most importantly, our company culture is inspiring, creative, and exciting. . . and we love what we do.

We are looking for an assistant manager for our Edinburgh City Centre tearoom to do a variety of tasks from managing the daily running of our tearoom to stock ordering & control, rotas, customer support, onboarding, learning and implementing new tasks within the business and other day-to-day activities.

This is a full time position over 5 flexible days (includes some weekends). The latest we generally close is 1830.

The ideal person we are looking for is...

Customer focused & positive

Experienced, with a minimum of 2 yrs hospitality experience including front of house, barista, kitchen and cashing up duties.

Organised & a high standard of English

Efficient, and gets things done!

Interested in working with a team in a creative environment

Pleasant to work with. . .fun personality and hard working

....Would you like to join an awesome team?

eteaket

LEAF TEA EXPERTS

....Would you like work for a business that makes people's day a little better?

(Who am I kidding--of course you would.)

Well then, follow the steps below thoroughly, like your future depends on it, because this could be the dream job you've been looking for...

Please email jobs@eteaket.co.uk with Assistant Manager in the subject, attach your CV and include the following:

- A sentence or two about WHY you would be a good fit for this position
- Something unique or interesting about yourself (what makes you weird?!)

The opportunity for growth is here... just show us your magic, Houdini.

Thank you!