How it works

From the comfort of your home, share an artisan experience with your friends, family or colleagues, or just enjoy with some like-minded others. Here's how it works:

1. Book or Request your preferred time
2. We'll deliver a box of teas to you - this is a physical DIY craft box containing the materials you'll need. UK shipping is free, and you'll get your box delivered in time for your class. We can ship worldwide.
3. Enjoy the online class. You'll receive a link to a Zoom meeting. On the day of the class, use that link to join the class. Class sizes are kept small, so you can easily ask questions and get immediate responses. Zoom is free and easy to use, on any device. You're in control of your privacy - you can mute yourself and hide your webcam if and when you prefer.

What you'll do

Master the art of tea cocktails with this indulgent virtual Isle of Harris Gin Tea cocktail masterclass from well-loved Scottish leaf tea experts, eteaket Tea.

Spice up your nights and learn some new skills as eteaket's Founder, Erica, teaches you how to make three delectable Isle of Harris Gin Tea cocktails. Shut out the outside world and have some fun learning new skills and recipes.

Erica will introduce you to the teas and the stories behind them and together, you will muddle, stir and sip some delicious and spirited creations. She will explain the art of cold brewing tea and other tea beverages like tea lattes so you'll be able to create your own concoctions.

Don't worry if you're a DIY cocktail beginner, this online class is designed for mixology newbies. By the end of the class, you'll understand the fundamentals of using tea as a base for all sorts of beverages including tea cocktails and you'll have perfected three awesome recipes.

We'll also provide you with mocktail options. No alcohol or mixers are included in the delivery but you'll find a simple shopping list below. Please ensure you have these ingredients (or alternatives) to hand so we can make together. The joy is in being creative and using what you have at home!.
